SALARY: $61,212 to $80,304 per year DOQ

LOCATION: Olympia, Washington

OPENS: September 26, 2017

CLOSES: October 18, 2017

POSITION PROFILE

Responsible for planning, implementing, monitoring and evaluating program components involving significant impact on judicial programs, to include completion of complex or highly technical major projects and objectives, on behalf of an assigned trial court association and under supervision of the State Court Administrator. Provides primary staff support to one or more trial court associations, including completion of research and projects on behalf of the assigned association, staffing committees, and coordination of and attendance at board meetings.

The incumbent is an expert level professional who works independently with minimal guidance and supervision on complex issues, research and projects within assigned areas of expertise/responsibility.

Work is performed in collaboration with judicial committees, court personnel, and AOC executives and staff.

This position coordinates the work of other professional and administrative staff assigned to perform work for trial court associations.

DUTIES AND RESPONSIBILITIES

Provides direct support services to judges and judicial committees; meets with committees and subcommittees to develop materials; prepares minutes, prepares draft materials for committee approval, and handles certain administrative matters as necessary.

Coordinates the work of any senior court program analyst, court program analyst, or administrative staff assigned to the same trial court associations.

Functions as an intermediary between judicial officers, court managers and staff, and the AOC for the exchange of information and the needs for judicial programs.

Keeps AOC management apprised of projects, issues, and interests of assigned trial court associations.

AOC PROFILE

The Administrative Office of the Courts (AOC) is a department of the Washington State Supreme Court. Established by state statute in 1957, the mission of the AOC is to advance the efficient and effective operation of the Washington State judicial system.

The AOC carries out its mission through formulation of policy and legislative initiatives, court technology development, educational programs, and program support for 428 Washington judges and their staff. The AOC draws its employees from a wide range of professions including legal, information technology, research, education, and judicial administration.

The agency is administered by an executive team that is committed to maintaining a dedicated and diverse workforce that provides the highest quality of customer service and continuously develops strategies for improving the performance and effectiveness of the court system in Washington.
