

BY-LAWS
OF
THURSTON COUNTY BAR ASSOCIATION

I.
PURPOSE

This Association has been organized for the following purposes:

1. To enhance the working relationship among the members by providing opportunities through periodic meetings and social gatherings to establish contacts with each other.
2. To provide opportunities for continuing legal education by periodically offering classes for the members on topics of professional growth and development.
3. To provide information about the legal profession and the legal community to the local community through a Speaker's Program, in which the TCBA membership provides, upon request, at a time mutually convenient and at no charge, an attorney or judge to speak to any school or community organization located in Thurston County.
4. To assist nonprofit organizations that provide legal services to the general public for little or no cost, and to encourage its members to assist such nonprofit organizations through donations of time and money.
5. To assist the voters in making informed choices about the candidates for judicial positions through the use of a Judicial Elections Bar Poll.
6. To advocate for the interests of its members.

II.
